The paper discusses the results of a study which explored advanced learners of EnglishĐ engagement with their mobile devices to develop learning experiences that meet theirĐ needs and goals as foreign language learners. The data were collected from 20 studentsĐ by means of a semi-structured interview. The gathered data were subjected toĐ qualitative and quantitative analysis. The results of the study demonstrated that, on theĐ one hand, some subjects manifested heightened awareness relating to the Dadvantageous role of mobile devices in their learning endeavors, their ability to reach D for suitable tools and retrieve necessary information so as to achieve their goals, meetĐ their needs and adjust their learning of English to their personal learning styles, and onĐ

the other, a rather intuitive and/or ad hoc use of their mobile devices in the classroom.
